Product Description

The A. Perry Cast Iron Butt Hinge is a traditional hinge designed to offer strength and reliability while providing a classic period look. Crafted from robust cast iron, these hinges are ideal for internal domestic and industrial doors where a traditional aesthetic is desired.

Featuring uncranked knuckles, these hinges provide a durable and smooth pivoting action. They are supplied in pairs, ensuring you have everything needed to hang a standard door.

These hinges are available in multiple lengths (75mm and 10.2cm) and weights (300g and 450g) to accommodate different door sizes. Please choose your preferred length, weight, and barcode options from the selection below.

Brand Profile

A. Perry

Perry Trade (The Perry Group / A. Perry Ltd) is a family-owned, West Midlands–based hardware manufacturer and trade supplier with roots going back to 1925, when Arthur Perry began making steel gutter brackets and hinges. Still directed by the 3rd and 4th generation of the Perry and Dunnaker family, the business has grown into a multi-division group serving trade customers across the UK and internationally.

Operating from a 140,000+ sq ft site spanning over 5 acres, Perry emphasizes operational efficiency and customer service, including a fully automated robot warehouse to support fast fulfilment. The group's "bread and butter" Perry Trade division focuses on hardware, architectural ironmongery, hinges, fixings and fasteners, gate and fencing hardware, locks, chain and rope, alongside specialist arms including Perry Equestrian, Primus (garden art/gifting), and Perry Manufacturing (threaded bar and engineered fasteners).
