Product Description

The ABUS 155 Series Combination Open Shackle Padlock is a highly convenient, keyless security solution designed for low to medium security requirements. Featuring a tough zinc die-cast body and a durable steel shackle, this padlock is ideal for protecting smaller valuables such as luggage, sports equipment, toolboxes, and school or gym lockers.

This versatile padlock features a resettable combination mechanism, allowing you to set and change your own personal PIN without the worry of losing keys. It is available in multiple body widths ranging from 26mm to 44.5mm, with either a 3-wheel (3-digit) or 4-wheel (4-digit) resettable combination mechanism. Shackle diameters are available in 3mm or 6.5mm options to fit a variety of locking points.

Please choose from the available options below to select the ideal body width, shackle clearance, and combination type for your specific requirements.

Brand Profile

Abus

ABUS (short for August Bremicker Söhne) is a German, family-owned security company best known for making locks and “preventative” security products—the stuff designed to stop problems before they happen. The company was founded in 1924, when August Bremicker and his sons started making padlocks in a cellar forge in Volmarstein (North Rhine-Westphalia). One of the earliest products was a padlock they called “Iron Rock,” and the business expanded from there into a broad security portfolio.

Today, ABUS’s headquarters are in Wetter (Ruhr), Germany, and the company manufactures across multiple German and international sites (with major German production called out in places like Rehe).

ABUS operates as a group with well-known consumer lines spanning padlocks and door/window security, alarm systems and video surveillance, and also bike security—notably bike locks and bike helmets (a big reason you’ll see the brand everywhere from hardware stores to cycling shops).

Brand-wise, ABUS leans hard into the “German engineering, don’t mess about” identity: practical, durability-obsessed, and aimed at homes, businesses, and people trying to stop their stuff being yeeted into the void by opportunistic goblins.
