Product Description

The ABUS 165 Series Brass Combination Open Shackle Padlock offers keyless convenience and reliable security for everyday applications. Featuring a sturdy brass body and a durable steel shackle, this padlock is ideal for securing luggage, sports equipment, toolboxes, lockers, and cupboards.

With its resettable combination mechanism, you can easily set and reset your own personalised PIN code without the hassle of carrying keys. The spring-loaded shackle ensures comfortable and precise setting of the opening code. Depending on your security needs, this padlock is available in multiple body widths ranging from 20mm to 40mm, with either a 3-digit or 4-digit combination.

Please choose your preferred body width, shackle diameter, and combination style from the options below to find the perfect fit for your requirements.

Brand Profile

Abus

ABUS (short for August Bremicker Söhne) is a German, family-owned security company best known for making locks and “preventative” security products—the stuff designed to stop problems before they happen. The company was founded in 1924, when August Bremicker and his sons started making padlocks in a cellar forge in Volmarstein (North Rhine-Westphalia). One of the earliest products was a padlock they called “Iron Rock,” and the business expanded from there into a broad security portfolio.

Today, ABUS’s headquarters are in Wetter (Ruhr), Germany, and the company manufactures across multiple German and international sites (with major German production called out in places like Rehe).

ABUS operates as a group with well-known consumer lines spanning padlocks and door/window security, alarm systems and video surveillance, and also bike security—notably bike locks and bike helmets (a big reason you’ll see the brand everywhere from hardware stores to cycling shops).

Brand-wise, ABUS leans hard into the “German engineering, don’t mess about” identity: practical, durability-obsessed, and aimed at homes, businesses, and people trying to stop their stuff being yeeted into the void by opportunistic goblins.
