Product Description

The Adams Rite 261-700 is a slimline, adjustable L bracket designed specifically for outward opening doors. It is the ideal mounting solution for access control installations where space is limited at the head of the door frame, preventing a direct fit of the magnet.

Engineered to suit the Adams Rite Armlock 261 series direct pull magnets, this bracket is constructed from durable, lightweight aluminium with a high-quality satin anodised finish. Its adjustable design allows for precise positioning of the maglock, ensuring exact alignment with the armature plate for optimal holding force and reliable security.

Brand Profile

Adams Rite

Adams Rite is a long-running American door-hardware brand best known as “the Aluminum Hardware Authority”—a specialist in locking and access hardware for narrow-stile aluminum doors (think storefronts, commercial entrances, glass-and-aluminum door systems).

The company’s core range covers deadlocks and deadlatches, electric strikes, exit devices/panic hardware, trim, and related cylinders/accessories—basically the mechanical and electromechanical guts that let commercial aluminum doors stay secure while still being code-compliant and usable.

Adams Rite is part of ASSA ABLOY, following ASSA ABLOY’s acquisition (announced and completed in 2006). In ASSA ABLOY’s portfolio, Adams Rite is positioned as a strong, complementary brand in aluminum door applications.
