Product Description

The Adams Rite 7100 Mortice Release is a medium-duty electric strike designed for use on single-leaf aluminium doors. It enables remote access control of doors fitted with Adams Rite 4700 series deadlatches (or similar). The strike jaw is unlocked by electrical actuation, releasing the latchbolt so the door can be opened without operating the latch itself.

This versatile mortice release features a flat faceplate with rounded corners for easy installation in aluminium frames. It is non-handed and fully reversible, making it suitable for both left-handed and right-handed applications.

We offer a range of configurations for this product. Please choose from the options below to select your preferred input voltage (12V AC, 12V DC, or 24V DC), operation mode (Fail Locked or Fail Unlocked), current consumption, and weight.

Brand Profile

Adams Rite

Adams Rite is a long-running American door-hardware brand best known as “the Aluminum Hardware Authority”—a specialist in locking and access hardware for narrow-stile aluminum doors (think storefronts, commercial entrances, glass-and-aluminum door systems).

The company’s core range covers deadlocks and deadlatches, electric strikes, exit devices/panic hardware, trim, and related cylinders/accessories—basically the mechanical and electromechanical guts that let commercial aluminum doors stay secure while still being code-compliant and usable.

Adams Rite is part of ASSA ABLOY, following ASSA ABLOY’s acquisition (announced and completed in 2006). In ASSA ABLOY’s portfolio, Adams Rite is positioned as a strong, complementary brand in aluminum door applications.
