Product Description

The Arregui Mail Collector Maxi is a secure and practical solution designed for mounting on the inside of a door, gate, or wall. When paired with an external letter plate (available separately), it catches incoming mail, keeping your post safe, clean, and off the floor.

Manufactured from high-quality galvanized steel, this mail collector is highly resistant to weather and corrosion, making it suitable for both indoor and outdoor-facing installations. It complies with the European Standard BS EN 13724, ensuring reliable durability and security.

With its medium-sized capacity, the Mail Collector Maxi easily accommodates A4 documents, magazines, and catalogues. It features a secure cylinder lock on the access door and is supplied with two keys, providing convenient and secure access to your mail from the inside of your property.
