Product Description

The Asec 'Caution: Hot Water' Sign is a highly visible hazard warning sign designed to alert users to the presence of hot water, helping to prevent accidental scalds and injuries in commercial, industrial, or domestic environments. Featuring a bold black and yellow finish, this sign ensures clear communication and complies with standard safety warning practices.

Constructed from durable PVC, the sign is self-adhesive, making it quick and easy to apply to any clean, flat, and dry surface without the need for additional fixings or tools. Measuring 200mm x 50mm, it is compact yet highly legible, making it ideal for placement near taps, sinks, and boilers.

Brand Profile

Asec

ASEC is a trade-focused security hardware brand built around the “everyday kit” locksmiths and installers reach for, with a big emphasis on breadth, availability, and value rather than boutique-only spec pieces. The brand was established in 2003 and was created specifically to support independent retailers and security professionals with products that “would never become available through the large multiple retailers.”

Where ASEC gets especially interesting (and why it tends to become a “default stock brand”) is the scale of the range:

- ASEC positions itself as having a portfolio of 2,000+ individual products, described as one of the largest ranges under a single security brand name in the industry.
- Coverage is intentionally broad across the core trade categories: Access Control, Architectural Hardware, Key Cutting, Locking Products, UPVC, Tools & Accessories.

ASEC is exclusive to Aldridge Security (whom we distribute) in the UK trade ecosystem (Aldridge explicitly calls itself the exclusive distributor of ASEC Security Products worldwide). That exclusivity is a big part of the brand’s identity: it keeps the range aimed at the trade channel rather than getting diluted into mass retail.
