Product Description

The Asec CG Surface Release Case is designed to convert a selection of Asec electric releases into a surface-mounted configuration. This high-quality casing is specifically engineered for inward-opening doors, providing a neat and secure surface-fit solution without the need for extensive morticing.

This surface release case is compatible with a wide range of popular Asec releases, including the A1, A2, A3, A6, A7, A21, A25, and A95 models. It is available in multiple options, including Grey and Polished Brass finishes, with weights ranging from 190g to 195g. Please choose your preferred finish, manufacturer reference, and barcode from the options below.

Whether you are upgrading an existing access control system or installing a new electric locking solution, this robust case offers a reliable and straightforward installation process.

Brand Profile

Asec

ASEC is a trade-focused security hardware brand built around the “everyday kit” locksmiths and installers reach for, with a big emphasis on breadth, availability, and value rather than boutique-only spec pieces. The brand was established in 2003 and was created specifically to support independent retailers and security professionals with products that “would never become available through the large multiple retailers.”

Where ASEC gets especially interesting (and why it tends to become a “default stock brand”) is the scale of the range:

- ASEC positions itself as having a portfolio of 2,000+ individual products, described as one of the largest ranges under a single security brand name in the industry.
- Coverage is intentionally broad across the core trade categories: Access Control, Architectural Hardware, Key Cutting, Locking Products, UPVC, Tools & Accessories.

ASEC is exclusive to Aldridge Security (whom we distribute) in the UK trade ecosystem (Aldridge explicitly calls itself the exclusive distributor of ASEC Security Products worldwide). That exclusivity is a big part of the brand’s identity: it keeps the range aimed at the trade channel rather than getting diluted into mass retail.
