Product Description

The Asec Concealed 165 Degree Sprung Cabinet Hinge is designed to provide a wide opening angle for cabinet doors, making it an ideal choice for corner cupboards, storage units, or any application where maximum access is required. These high-quality hinges feature an integrated sprung mechanism to keep doors securely closed when not in use, eliminating the need for additional catches.

With a sleek nickel-plated finish, these concealed hinges offer a clean, modern aesthetic by remaining hidden from view when the cabinet door is closed. They are supplied in pairs, allowing you to easily complete a single door installation. Please note that fixings are not included and must be purchased separately.

Brand Profile

Asec

ASEC is a trade-focused security hardware brand built around the “everyday kit” locksmiths and installers reach for, with a big emphasis on breadth, availability, and value rather than boutique-only spec pieces. The brand was established in 2003 and was created specifically to support independent retailers and security professionals with products that “would never become available through the large multiple retailers.”

Where ASEC gets especially interesting (and why it tends to become a “default stock brand”) is the scale of the range:

- ASEC positions itself as having a portfolio of 2,000+ individual products, described as one of the largest ranges under a single security brand name in the industry.
- Coverage is intentionally broad across the core trade categories: Access Control, Architectural Hardware, Key Cutting, Locking Products, UPVC, Tools & Accessories.

ASEC is exclusive to Aldridge Security (whom we distribute) in the UK trade ecosystem (Aldridge explicitly calls itself the exclusive distributor of ASEC Security Products worldwide). That exclusivity is a big part of the brand’s identity: it keeps the range aimed at the trade channel rather than getting diluted into mass retail.
