Product Description

The Asec "No Free Newspapers or Junk Mail" metal strip sign is a stylish and practical solution to deter unwanted mail and free publications from your home or business premises. Featuring a contemporary polished gold effect with a mirror-like finish, this mini sign offers a premium look that complements modern architectural hardware.

Measuring 200mm x 50mm, its compact size makes it ideal for areas where space is limited, such as letterboxes, narrow door frames, or entryways, without looking unsightly. Made from durable semi-rigid PVC with a gold-effect metal strip, the sign is designed to withstand daily wear and tear. It features a self-adhesive backing, allowing for quick, easy, and secure installation on clean, flat surfaces without the need for screws or drilling.

Brand Profile

Asec

ASEC is a trade-focused security hardware brand built around the “everyday kit” locksmiths and installers reach for, with a big emphasis on breadth, availability, and value rather than boutique-only spec pieces. The brand was established in 2003 and was created specifically to support independent retailers and security professionals with products that “would never become available through the large multiple retailers.”

Where ASEC gets especially interesting (and why it tends to become a “default stock brand”) is the scale of the range:

- ASEC positions itself as having a portfolio of 2,000+ individual products, described as one of the largest ranges under a single security brand name in the industry.
- Coverage is intentionally broad across the core trade categories: Access Control, Architectural Hardware, Key Cutting, Locking Products, UPVC, Tools & Accessories.

ASEC is exclusive to Aldridge Security (whom we distribute) in the UK trade ecosystem (Aldridge explicitly calls itself the exclusive distributor of ASEC Security Products worldwide). That exclusivity is a big part of the brand’s identity: it keeps the range aimed at the trade channel rather than getting diluted into mass retail.
