Product type	Accessory

Product Description

The Asec Rim Release Faceplate is designed to convert standard Asec electric releases into rim-fitting units. This faceplate is suitable for inward-opening doors only and provides a neat, secure solution for access control installations.

It is compatible with a wide range of Asec releases, including the A1, A2, A3, A6, A7, A21, A25, and A95 models. By using this faceplate, you can easily adapt your existing electric release to suit rim-mounted locks, saving the cost of purchasing a completely new unit.

This product is available in multiple finishes, including Grey and Polished Brass, with corresponding manufacturer references AS9511 and AS9512. Please select your preferred finish and reference from the options below.

Brand Profile

Asec

ASEC is a trade-focused security hardware brand built around the “everyday kit” locksmiths and installers reach for, with a big emphasis on breadth, availability, and value rather than boutique-only spec pieces. The brand was established in 2003 and was created specifically to support independent retailers and security professionals with products that “would never become available through the large multiple retailers.”

Where ASEC gets especially interesting (and why it tends to become a “default stock brand”) is the scale of the range:

- ASEC positions itself as having a portfolio of 2,000+ individual products, described as one of the largest ranges under a single security brand name in the industry.
- Coverage is intentionally broad across the core trade categories: Access Control, Architectural Hardware, Key Cutting, Locking Products, UPVC, Tools & Accessories.

ASEC is exclusive to Aldridge Security (whom we distribute) in the UK trade ecosystem (Aldridge explicitly calls itself the exclusive distributor of ASEC Security Products worldwide). That exclusivity is a big part of the brand’s identity: it keeps the range aimed at the trade channel rather than getting diluted into mass retail.
