Product Description

The Asec Spare Glass for Call Points (AS8030) is a high-quality replacement glass designed for emergency break glass units. Manufactured with laminated, shatterproof glass, it ensures maximum safety during an emergency by breaking cleanly without producing dangerous, sharp shards.

This clear replacement glass is supplied in a convenient pack of 5, making it an essential maintenance spare for fire alarms and access control call points in commercial, industrial, or residential properties. It is designed to fit Asec call points (such as the AS8033, AS8035, and AS8016 models) as well as other standard call points requiring KG1-size glass.

Brand Profile

Asec

ASEC is a trade-focused security hardware brand built around the “everyday kit” locksmiths and installers reach for, with a big emphasis on breadth, availability, and value rather than boutique-only spec pieces. The brand was established in 2003 and was created specifically to support independent retailers and security professionals with products that “would never become available through the large multiple retailers.”

Where ASEC gets especially interesting (and why it tends to become a “default stock brand”) is the scale of the range:

- ASEC positions itself as having a portfolio of 2,000+ individual products, described as one of the largest ranges under a single security brand name in the industry.
- Coverage is intentionally broad across the core trade categories: Access Control, Architectural Hardware, Key Cutting, Locking Products, UPVC, Tools & Accessories.

ASEC is exclusive to Aldridge Security (whom we distribute) in the UK trade ecosystem (Aldridge explicitly calls itself the exclusive distributor of ASEC Security Products worldwide). That exclusivity is a big part of the brand’s identity: it keeps the range aimed at the trade channel rather than getting diluted into mass retail.
