Product Description

The Asec Spring Door Stop is a practical and cost-effective solution designed to protect your walls, skirting boards, and door handles from impact damage. Measuring 75mm in length, this flexible spring door stop absorbs the force of opening doors, preventing unsightly scuffs and dents in both domestic and commercial environments.

Designed for quick and straightforward installation, it easily fixes directly to the wall or skirting board using a secure screw fixing. This spring door stop is available in multiple finishes, including Chrome Plated and Electro Brass, to seamlessly match your existing door furniture. Please select your preferred finish, manufacturer reference, and barcode from the options below.

Brand Profile

Asec

ASEC is a trade-focused security hardware brand built around the “everyday kit” locksmiths and installers reach for, with a big emphasis on breadth, availability, and value rather than boutique-only spec pieces. The brand was established in 2003 and was created specifically to support independent retailers and security professionals with products that “would never become available through the large multiple retailers.”

Where ASEC gets especially interesting (and why it tends to become a “default stock brand”) is the scale of the range:

- ASEC positions itself as having a portfolio of 2,000+ individual products, described as one of the largest ranges under a single security brand name in the industry.
- Coverage is intentionally broad across the core trade categories: Access Control, Architectural Hardware, Key Cutting, Locking Products, UPVC, Tools & Accessories.

ASEC is exclusive to Aldridge Security (whom we distribute) in the UK trade ecosystem (Aldridge explicitly calls itself the exclusive distributor of ASEC Security Products worldwide). That exclusivity is a big part of the brand’s identity: it keeps the range aimed at the trade channel rather than getting diluted into mass retail.
