Product Description

The Asec Vital Surface Door Closer is a reliable, spring-action overhead door closer designed for straightforward installation on a variety of doors. Featuring a clean white finish, this surface-mounted closer is an ideal, cost-effective solution for both domestic and light commercial environments where reliable door closure is required.

With its self-handing (reversible) design, it can be easily fitted to either left or right-handed doors without the need for complex adjustments. This makes it a highly versatile and user-friendly choice for DIY enthusiasts and professional installers alike.
