Product Description

The ERA 263 & 363 Fortress Euro Deadlock Case Only is a high-security mortice lock case designed to house a euro profile cylinder. Because it is supplied without a cylinder, it is the ideal choice for integration into master key suites or keyed-alike systems, allowing you to choose the exact level of cylinder security and keying requirements your project demands.

Engineered with robust security features, this deadlock case features hardened steel plates on the lock case to resist drilling, alongside laminated hardened steel plates within the deadbolt to defend against hacksawing. The lock delivers a substantial 20mm bolt throw for enhanced physical resistance.

This lock case is available in multiple configurations to suit your door preparation and aesthetic preferences. Please choose from the options below to select your preferred backset, case depth, weight, manufacturer reference, and finish.

Brand Profile

ERA

ERA (often seen as ERA Home Security) is one of the long-standing names in UK locking and hardware, rooted in the West Midlands and heavily tied to the door & window trade. ERA traces its origins to 1838, when John Reynolds started a locksmith business in Willenhall—a town that's basically the spiritual capital of British lockmaking.

These days ERA positions itself as a "home security expert" that designs, develops, manufactures, and distributes a broad range of products for the residential building and home improvement market—spanning cylinders and door hardware, window hardware, smart/security products, and associated ironmongery ranges (including brands like Crompton under the ERA umbrella).

On the corporate side, ERA was historically part of Tyman plc (you'll see that referenced in older deal/industry material). More recently, ERA states directly that it is now part of Quanex (NYSE: NX) following Quanex's acquisition of Tyman.
