Product Description

The LOCINOX SHKL Adjustable Security Keep is a robust and weather-resistant solution designed to provide reliable security for outdoor gates. Engineered with a high-quality stainless steel construction, this keep is fully adjustable to accommodate gate profiles from 40mm to 60mm, making it suitable for both rectangular and round profiles.

A key security feature is the patented stainless steel anchoring system, which prevents the gate from being pulled or pried out of the keep. It also features an extruded aluminium stop plate with an integrated rubber strip to ensure a smooth, quiet, and cushioned closure. Installation is fast and secure thanks to the unique Quick-Fix mounting system. Additionally, the keep is fully reversible (non-handed), allowing it to fit both left-handed and right-handed gate configurations with ease.
