Product Description

The TrioVing 565/50 lock case (previously known under the part number Boda 444) is a highly reliable central lock case. This model is most commonly found on domestic front doors manufactured and installed during the 1980s, making it an ideal retrofitting or replacement option for older residential properties.

Designed for robust security and smooth operation, this lock case features a 50mm backset and a 105mm PZ centre (the distance from the centre of the spindle to the centre of the keyhole). It is specifically designed to be operated by Scandinavian oval cylinders or TrioVing 5537 cylinders, ensuring a precise and secure fit. With a faceplate measuring 225mm and a compact 75mm case depth, it offers a straightforward replacement solution to restore the security of your classic front door without the need for extensive door modifications.

Brand Profile

TrioVing

TrioVing is a Norwegian lock and door-hardware brand with deep roots in Scandinavia's "make it survive winter and humans" engineering tradition. The modern TrioVing name comes from a series of mergers in Norway's lock industry: TRIO was formed in 1904 by the merger of three lock/fittings companies, VING formed in 1950, and the two combined in 1971 to create TrioVing A/S, which became Norway's leading lock company.

In 1983, Finland's Abloy entered the Norwegian market by acquiring TrioVing's Locks and Security (along with VingCard's hotel security business), pulling TrioVing into the broader Nordic consolidation story that eventually became ASSA ABLOY.

What TrioVing is especially known for today is robust, Scandinavian-style lockcases and hardware—including stainless steel mortice lockcases that show up in high-end Scandinavian doors and marine applications, where corrosion resistance isn't a "nice to have," it's the entire point.
