Product Description

This professional key cutting service is designed specifically for landlords, property managers, and property owners who maintain an existing master key system featuring the 'TSR' & "HMJ" prefix engraved on the key head.

After you place your order it will be sent for approval. Read more about our master key systems here.

To order replacement or additional keys for your system, simply locate the code engraved on your current key head and enter the complete details into the provided text box before adding the item to your basket. For example, if your key is engraved with TSR 123 MAS (representing the Master key for system TSR 123), please enter this exact sequence to ensure your key is cut accurately to code.
