Product Description

The UNION C-Series 1K11 Battleship Lever Padlock (formerly known as Chubb) is a heavy-duty, high-security padlock designed to provide exceptional resistance against physical attacks. Built with a forged solid steel body and a closed shackle design, it offers superb protection against hacksaw and torque attacks. The shackle pivot is further protected by an anti-drill weld, ensuring maximum security for demanding applications.

Equipped with a robust 6-lever mechanism, this padlock delivers reliable key control and mechanical durability. It is supplied with three keys and is available in both Keyed Alike and Keyed To Differ options to suit your security requirements. Please select your preferred keying option and barcode from the options below.
