Product type	Long Shackle

Product Description

The Yale Y110B Brass Long Shackle Padlock is a reliable, general-purpose security solution designed primarily for indoor use. Featuring a solid brass body and an extended shackle, this padlock is ideal for securing lockers, toolboxes, cabinets, and other indoor valuables where extra shackle clearance is required.

This padlock features a convenient snap-locking mechanism, allowing you to lock the shackle without using the key. To ensure long-lasting performance, the padlock has been durability tested to 10,000 cycles for shackle opening and closing, and has undergone up to 96 hours of corrosion resistance testing. This specific variant comes keyed alike, making it an excellent choice for users who want to operate multiple locks with a single key.

Brand Profile

Yale

Yale is one of the most recognisable names in locks and home security — the kind of brand that's become so default it's basically a synonym for "lock" in a lot of people's heads. The story starts with Linus Yale and the invention/development of the pin-tumbler concept that underpins a huge chunk of modern lock design, then scales into mass manufacturing and global distribution through the industrial era.

Today, Yale sits in an interesting split-brain reality:

- Outside the US & Canada, Yale is an ASSA ABLOY brand, and Yale's own regional "About" pages explicitly state the brand was purchased by ASSA ABLOY in August 2000.
- In the US & Canada, the Yale and August brands were sold off as part of antitrust remedies tied to ASSA ABLOY's Spectrum acquisition; Reuters and The Verge both describe Yale being retained by ASSA ABLOY outside North America, while the US/Canada Yale brand moved to Fortune Brands Innovations.

Product-wise, Yale spans the whole spectrum from classic mechanical cylinders and door hardware through to smart locks and connected access under the Yale Home umbrella. A key modern milestone was ASSA ABLOY's acquisition of August Home (completed in December 2017), which fed into the broader "smart access" push around app-based entry and connected ecosystems.
