Product Description

The Hiatt 384B Ratchet Showcase Lock is a secure, high-quality locking solution designed specifically for sliding glass doors, display cases, and retail showcases. Offering reliable security for valuable merchandise, trophies, or collectibles, this lock is an essential addition to both commercial and domestic display cabinets.

One of the standout benefits of the Hiatt 384B is its incredibly easy installation. It simply slips onto the edge of the glass door at any desired location, completely eliminating the need for boring or drilling holes in the glass. This non-destructive mounting method ensures your glass panels remain pristine and undamaged.

Additionally, the lock is fully reversible, making it suitable for both left- and right-handed sliding doors. It is supplied complete with two keys, providing immediate security right out of the box. With its durable chrome-plated finish, this lock combines robust functionality with a clean, professional aesthetic that blends seamlessly into any modern display setup.
